Description: This high profile wallscape is one of the largest and best locations to advertise at your upcoming tradeshow event. The North West facing wall will capture the attention of the attendees walking or driving to the show along Paradise Drive and at the closest Convention Center parking lot. The location is at the corner of Paradise Road and the South Hall Entrance driveway into the Convention Center. In addition, this advertisement towers over the new Las Vegas Monorail Station with a DEC of 52,000. By advertising on this wall, every event attendee and exhibitor will see your company's presence at the show and you will expand your branding efforts to over 100,000 DEC Las Vegas visitors from all over the world!
